

NOTICE TO THE BAR

COVID-19 – LANDLORD/TENANT – AMENDMENT OF LANDLORD/TENANT SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT FORMS; INTERIM RULE RELAXATIONS; AND AUTHORIZATION TO APPLY FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE IN AN EMERGENCY

By Order dated July 14, 2020, the Supreme Court has authorized several steps to support the resumption of landlord/tenant case processing during the ongoing COVID-19 crisis.

Background

The COVID-19 pandemic forced the New Jersey courts to transition from in-person to remote proceedings and to suspend landlord/tenant trial calendars as of March 16, 2020. Over the past four months, a significant number of landlord/tenant complaints have been docketed and have not yet been served on tenants. Additional cases that were pending as of March 16, 2020 have yet to be resolved. An influx of new landlord/tenant complaints also is anticipated when the relief provided by the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES Act), 15 U.S.C. 9001 et seq., expires on July 25, 2020.

Current circumstances require the New Jersey courts to implement a cohesive strategy for landlord/tenant cases pending service and landlord/tenant cases pending trial. To that end, with input from tenant advocates and landlord representatives, the Court has authorized both permanent and interim measures to support the resumption of service of landlord/tenant complaints and the scheduling of settlement conferences while landlord/tenant trials remain suspended. Those measures are critical to facilitating the best possible outcomes for tens of thousands of New Jersey residents who face potential loss of housing in the coming months.

Amendments to Landlord/Tenant Summons and Complaint Forms

The Court in the July 14, 2020 Order adopted amendments to the Landlord/Tenant Summons Form (Appendix XI-B) and the Landlord/Tenant Complaint Form (Appendix XI-X). Effective immediately, both forms will include fields for party email addresses and to indicate whether the case involves a residential or commercial tenancy, which information will facilitate communications and differentiated case management. Based on the ongoing suspension of landlord/tenant trials, the Summons also is amended to remove the trial date field. The July 14, 2020 Order relaxes Rules 6:2-1 (“Form of Summons”) and 6:2-2 (“Process; Filing and Issuance”) as necessary for implementation of those amendments to the forms.

Interim Relaxation of Court Rules

The Court's July 14, 2020 Order also temporarily relaxes Rule 1:13-7(d) ("Dismissal of Civil Cases for Lack of Prosecution"), so as to prevent the dismissal of landlord/tenant complaints that have not yet been served or scheduled for trial and Rule 1:40-7(b) ("Tenancy Actions"), so as to temporarily eliminate the requirement of same-day trials if landlord/tenant matters are not resolved via complementary dispute resolution. Rule 6:2-2(a) ("Delivery to Clerk; Issuance"), is relaxed so as (1) to require landlords who have filed a complaint between March 27, 2020 and July 24, 2020 seeking to evict a tenant for nonpayment of rent to submit a CARES Act Compliance Certification in a form to be promulgated by the Administrative Director of the Courts; and (2) to eliminate the requirement for landlords that file electronically to submit an original and two copies of landlord/tenant pleadings.

Landlord/Tenant Trials Remain Suspended; Exception for Orders to Show Cause in Emergencies

The Court's July 14, 2020 Order permits landlords to apply for issuance of an Order to Show Cause for eviction. The basis of that landlord/tenant action cannot be nonpayment of rent, except in the case of the death of the tenant. All applications for an Order to Show Cause will be reviewed and will proceed to a trial only if the court determines that an emergency exists. Examples of such emergency include but are not limited to, documented violence, criminal activity, or other health and safety concerns. The Court's July 14, 2020 Order also acknowledges that an eviction may proceed in the "interest of justice" as provided by Executive Order 106 (issued March 19, 2020).

SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

In response to the ongoing COVID-19 public health emergency, the Supreme Court has authorized various interim adjustments to court operations, including the temporary suspension of landlord/tenant trials since March 16, 2020. Separate from the Court's action, Executive Order 106 (issued March 19, 2020) suspended residential evictions for two months after the conclusion of the COVID-19 public health emergency or state of emergency. Executive Order 162 (issued July 2, 2020) extended the public health emergency through August 1, 2020. With limited exceptions, evictions of residential tenants thus cannot proceed until October 1, 2020, unless Executive Order 106 is rescinded earlier.

The Court in the June 11, 2020 Fourth Omnibus Order directed that landlord/tenant proceedings shall proceed as follows: (a) lockouts of residential tenants (evictions) continue to be suspended in accordance with Executive Order 106; (b) landlord/tenant complaints may continue to be filed with the courts, and new complaints shall include an email address for the landlord and to the extent available an email address for the tenant; (c) the courts shall schedule conferences, including to obtain or confirm contact information from the parties and conduct settlement negotiations in an effort to resolve matters; and (d) trials continue to be suspended until further notice. The Court continued those provisions in the June 25, 2020 Fifth Omnibus Order and the July 9, 2020 Sixth Omnibus Order.

Consistent with the Court's prior Orders, settlement conferences in landlord/tenant cases have been conducted, and some cases have been resolved.

More than 17,200 landlord/tenant complaints have been docketed during the pendency of the COVID-19 crisis and have not yet been served on tenants due to the suspension of landlord/tenant trials. An additional 12,500 cases that were pending as of March 16, 2020 have yet to be resolved. An influx of new landlord/tenant complaints also is anticipated when the relief provided by the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES Act), 15 U.S.C. 9001 et seq., expires on July 25, 2020.

The New Jersey courts must implement a comprehensive strategy to address landlord/tenant cases pending service and landlord/tenant cases pending trial. Additional steps also are necessary to ensure compliance with the federal CARES Act, which provides a moratorium on eviction filings for certain rental properties.

Accordingly, effective immediately this Order amends certain landlord/tenant forms that are incorporated as Appendices to the Rules of Court; temporarily relaxes Court Rules for the duration of the COVID-19 public health crisis; and implements measures to ensure compliance with the CARES Act and Executive Order 106, as follows:

- 1. The Landlord/Tenant Summons Form (Appendix XI-B) is amended as attached to this Order: (a) to include fields for the email addresses for the landlord and the tenant; (b) to remove the trial date field; and (c) to indicate whether the case involves a residential tenancy or a commercial tenancy.

2. The Landlord/Tenant Complaint Form (Appendix XI-X) is amended as attached to this Order: (a) to include fields for the email addresses for the landlord and the tenant; and (b) to indicate whether the case involves a residential tenancy or a commercial tenancy.
3. Pursuant to N.J. Const., Art. VI, sec. 2, par. 3, until further order, Rules 6:2-1 (“Form of Summons”) and 6:2-2 (“Process; Filing and Issuance”) are relaxed and supplemented as necessary for implementation of the above-referenced amendments to the Landlord/Tenant Summons Form (Appendix XI-B) and the Landlord/Tenant Complaint Form (Appendix XI-X).
4. On a temporary basis until further order, the following additional Rules of Court also are relaxed and supplemented as follows:
 - a. Rule 1:13-7(d) (“Dismissal of Civil Cases for Lack of Prosecution”), so as to prevent the dismissal of landlord/tenant complaints that have not yet been served or scheduled for trial during the COVID-19 crisis;

- b. Rule 1:40-7(b) (“Tenancy Actions”), so as to temporarily eliminate the requirement that if landlord/tenant matters are not resolved via complementary dispute resolution then trials shall be scheduled on the same day; and
 - c. Rule 6:2-2(a) (“Delivery to Clerk; Issuance”), so as (i) to require landlords who have filed a complaint between March 27, 2020 and July 24, 2020 seeking to evict a tenant for nonpayment of rent to submit a CARES Act Compliance Certification in a form promulgated by the Administrative Director of the Courts; and (ii) to eliminate the requirement for landlords that electronically submit pleadings to submit an original and two copies of landlord/tenant pleadings.
5. The July 9, 2020 Sixth Omnibus Order is amended as to landlord/tenant trials such that landlords/plaintiffs may in emergent circumstances apply for an Order to Show Cause for eviction. The basis of that landlord/tenant action cannot be nonpayment of rent, except in the case of the death of the tenant. In determining whether to issue the Order to Show Cause, the court will review the complaint and determine whether an emergency exists (e.g., violence against other tenants; criminal activity; extreme damage to residence; death of tenant resulting in vacancy of the rental unit), and based on that determination may schedule a landlord/tenant trial. As permitted by Executive Order 106, an eviction may proceed in the “interest of justice.”
